

Nonprofit Visions Global Empowerment and jewelry designer Neha Dani host fundraising luncheon

Jewelry designer Neha Dani partnered with Visions Global Empowerment, a nonprofit that aids communities affected by poverty and conflict, for a fundraising luncheon Nov. 18 in the Sun Room at the Grande Colonial hotel in La Jolla. The event benefited Escuela Vera Angelita, a nonprofit boarding school for girls in Matagalpa, Nicaragua, that is scheduled to open in February for grades five through eight. See more photos at rsreview.com.

Jewelry designs by Neha Dani are displayed at the Visions Global Empowerment luncheon.

Donna Vance, Liz Griggs, Susan Hoehn and Helen Nordan

Monica Fimbres, Sandra den Uijl and Gina Jordan

Visions Global Empowerment Executive Director Gregory Buie, event host Maria Delgado, event host and VGE board Chairwoman Tamara Lafarga-Joseph, and Andrea Hansen, representing jewelry artist Neha Dani, attend VGE's fundraising luncheon.

A tip of the hat to Pam Marks, Elisa Jaime, Rita Hannah and Kate Whitney as they gather at Visions Global Empowerment's fundraising luncheon at La Jolla's Grande Colonial hotel Nov. 18.

PHOTOS BY VINCENT ANDRUNAS
Esther Rodriguez and Margo Aura Emami

Vivian Hardage, Carol Sciotto, Lynne Wheeler and Linda Royster Cook

Sonny Wang, Breena Hayman, Julie Plashkes and Nicole Frank

Betsy McKibbin, Lisa Arnold, Charo Garcia-Acevedo and Lisa Posard