

Empower a Youth in India to Realize Their University Ambitions & Change the Course of Their Life!

S. Yona

Bachelor of Commerce

Yona is in 12th grade. She dreams of becoming an accountant. She scored high grades throughout high school and could be accepted into university easily. Unfortunately, her parents have no money to send her to university. Her father is a day laborer, and her mother is a house maid. Worse than financial scarcity though, Yona faces a household completely disinterested in sending her to university to study. When Yona announced to her mother that she had achieved high marks at the end of high school, her mother's reaction was disappointing – primarily expressing concern that she would have to pay for Yona's university rather than rejoicing with her.

Yona was encouraged by a Visions worker, who told her the organization may be able to support her dreams. Joy and hope have now come back into Yona's life. She is hopeful that she will go to university and one day have a steady job.
